ABOUT FINE BREADS OF AUSTRALIA

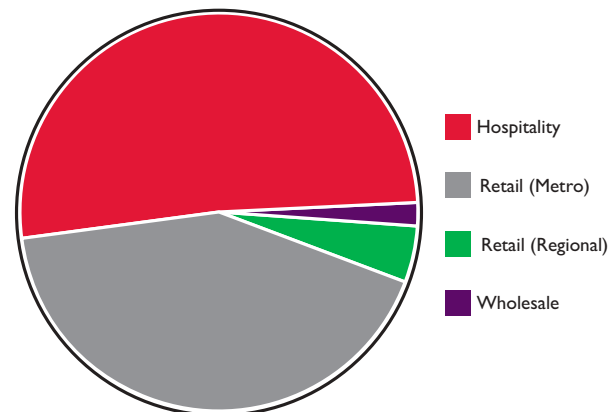

With over 65 years of baking experience, Fine Breads of Australia are renowned for producing a consistently high quality and innovative range of bread and bread products.

Managing Director, Anthony Parisi has over 8 years experience across all areas of the baking industry, including baking, distribution, marketing and sales. Our baking team are dedicated to producing wholesome, new and exciting breads for the health conscious, without substituting quality or tradition.

Our bread factory is located at Brookvale, which is well situated to both our existing and potentially new markets. At full capacity Fine Breads of Australia is capable of producing over 60,000 individual bread units per week, across multiple bread ranges and types.

As an increasingly expanding company, Fine Breads of Australia services a wide range of businesses, from gourmet cafes, to large supermarket retail chains. Our service is backed by fine quality service that Australian retailers and customers have come to expect.

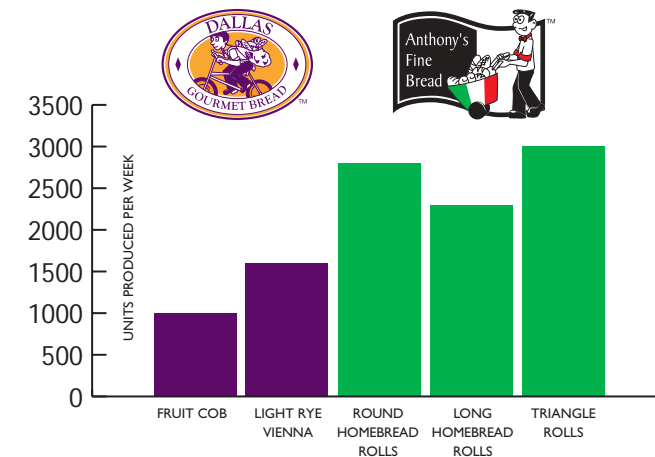

MARKET SEGMENTATION

The baking team at Fine Breads of Australia are dedicated to providing top quality bread products. We are always looking for new and exciting ways to sell our bread range and innovate our products.

We guarantee a bread buying experience that is second to none. Our extensive product range means both customers and retailers can enjoy a large selection of quality bread, backed by nutritional goodness and value for money.

POPULAR PRODUCT DISTRIBUTIONS

All Fine Breads of Australia products have nutritional panels on all packaging, complete with an ingredients list, storage requirements and freezing instructions. So you can be assured that all our breads are healthy and wholesome, not just delicious!
